* Members of the Quincy Kennel Club volunteer to operate the breeder referral service for people looking for dogs to become a part of their family. Members of the club and The Quincy Kennel Club are in no way responsible for screening the individuals contacting breeders. It is the responsibility of the breeders to decide whether these individuals would be a good and proper home for their puppies/dogs. Once approved by the Breeder Referral Committee your name will be placed on the list of contacts for your breed. Only names, phone numbers, email address and web sites will be provided to individuals looking for breeders.
